

Covid test positivity – Dorset comparison with England up

The percentage of people in Dorset and BCP who took a polymerase chain reaction (PCR) test and received a positive PCR test result in the same 7 days. Data are shown by the date the sample was taken from the person. Each person is only counted once in the denominator, and people with more than one positive test result are only counted once.

